

Susan Paudel

susan.paudel@uga.edu • 706-247-3856

Citizenship: Nepal

Research interests

Consumer demand, food demand, international development and time series analysis

Education

- | | |
|----------------|---|
| 2022 – Present | University of Georgia – Athens, Georgia
PhD in Agricultural and Applied Economics |
| 2020 – 2022 | University of Georgia – Athens, Georgia
MS in Agricultural and Applied Economics
Chair: Professor Mateusz Filipski |
| 2013 – 2018 | Agriculture and Forestry University – Chitwan, Nepal
BS in Agriculture
Chair: Professor Madhav P. Pandey |

Awards and scholarships

- | | |
|-------------|---|
| 2024 | Outstanding Teaching Assistant for AAEC 6610 (University of Georgia) |
| 2023 | Outstanding Teaching Assistant for AAEC 3020 (University of Georgia) |
| 2020 – 2026 | Graduate Research Assistantship (University of Georgia) |
| 2014 – 2018 | Full time Merit Scholarship (Agriculture and Forestry University, Chitwan, Nepal) |

Research experience

- | | |
|---------------------------|--|
| January 2023 – Present | Research Assistant
Mentor: Professor A. Ford Ramsey (University of Georgia).
Worked on research related to time series analysis, food and agriculture |
| December 2023 – July 2024 | Research Assistant
Mentor: Professor Sechindra Vallury (University of Georgia).
Working on information effect on the groundwater sustainability |

- August 2020 – December 2022 Research Assistant
Mentor: Professor Mateusz Filipski (University of Georgia).
Worked on research related to rural structural change in Myanmar
- November 2018 – January 2019 Research Intern at National Agriculture Research Council
Mentors: Senior Scientist Dhruba B. Thapa
Helped in lab-in-field experiment studying the wheat cultivation along with helping in the data keeping and analysis
- December 2017 – June 2018 Research Intern at Prime Minister Agricultural Modernization Project
Mentors: Professor Madhav P. Pandey, Hridayanath Ghimire
Worked as an extension agent in the Citrus Zone Implementation Unit, which mainly focused on technology and skill transfer to the rural farmers. Also, helped in surveying households in the Citrus cultivating rural households in western hilly region

Teaching experience

- Fall 2023 Teaching assistant, AAEC 6610: Quantitative Methods in Agriculture (University of Georgia)
Graded assignments and exams, assisted lab classes.
- Fall 2022 Teaching assistant, AAEC 3020: Analytical and Computational tools (University of Georgia)
Graded assignments and exams, taught classes
- Spring 2021 Teaching assistant, AAEC 6610L: Quantitative Methods in Agriculture (University of Georgia)
Graded assignments and exams
- May 2019 – December 2020 Agriculture Instructor, various courses: (Galkot Secondary School)
Instructed high school students in field and lab along with taking exams and teaching

Works in Progress

- Susan Paudel, A. Ford Ramsey. 2026. Price elasticities Second Chapter, PhD Dissertation

- Susan Paudel,
A. Ford Ramsey.
2026.

Revisiting
Generalized
Models of Japanese
Seafood
Demand: A
Forecast
Combination
Approach

*Second Chapter,
PhD
Dissertation*

Book Chapter

- Susan Paudel, Mateusz Filipski, Bart Minten. 2022. Income Diversification and the rural non-farm economy. International Food Policy Research Institute.

Conferences

July 2026	AAEA Annual Meeting, Kansas City, MO, US
December 2019	Annual Scientific Symposium on Agriculture to Nutrition: Pathway to Resilience , Kathmandu, Nepal
October 2019	International Conference on Mountains in the Changing World (MoChWo), Kathmandu, Nepal

Professional memberships

2023 – Present	Agricultural and Applied Economics Association
2023 – Present	Southern Agricultural Economics Association
2020 – Present	Nepalese Student Association, University of Georgia

Technical skills

Programming languages

Proficient in: STATA

Familiar with: SAS, R, Python, SPSS

Software

L^AT_EX, ArcGIS

Languages

English, Nepali (native), Hindi (fluent)

Other interests

Hiking, Travelling, Reading, Baking, Photography